

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example a misuse of the public airwaves--and of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. And, with the proposed airing of "Stolen Honor" we get a political ad, unpaid for, on the public airwaves. Outrageous!!

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. And why, if Sinclair airs "Stolen Honor", their license should be revoked!! Thank you.
